ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The NSW Government, in conjunction with TAFE NSW (RTO 90003), is offering scholarships to residents of NSW to undertake an accredited interpreting course to gain 900-80825V01 Statement of Attainment in Interpreting for NAATI Certification Test through TAFE NSW NSW. Successful course graduates will be eligible to become Recognised Practising Interpreters with the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI).

The NSW Interpreter Scholarship Program will be delivered in connected (online) format by TAFE NSW.

Participants will be required to attend six hours per week of online classes for 11 weeks. The first course will start in July 2022 and the second course will start in October 2022 (depending on class sizes). The classes will run 2 nights per week (Mondays and Tuesdays, 5:30pm-8:30pm).

SYDNEY METRO

Applications will be accepted from Sydney Metro residents who speak a key language/s listed above and who fulfill the eligibility requirements.

REGIONAL

Applications will be accepted from Albury and Armidale residents who speak a key language/s listed above and who fulfill the eligibility requirements.

TAFE NSW teachers will be undertaking all assessment activities as part of this course.

TAFE NSW will issue certificates to participants who successfully complete the course.

The course will include the delivery of four accredited units:

- PSPTIS001 – Apply codes and standards to Ethical practice
- PSPTIS002 – Build glossaries for interpreting and translating assignments
- PSPTIS003 – Prepare to Translate and interpret
- PSPTIS042 – Manage discourses in general settings.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for a scholarship you must:

- Live in NSW
- Be an Australian citizen, or have permanent residency (consideration will be given to applications from asylum seekers)
- Successfully fulfill English language proficiency requirements as required by TAFE NSW. TAFE NSW will be conducting English level testing to assess the eligibility of participants in the course
- Have sufficient oral language proficiency in the interpreting language as determined by Multicultural NSW assessors
- Have computer skills to participate in the online learning format of the course.
- Have a genuine commitment to working as an Interpreter.

GRADUATION

Successful graduates will receive mentoring from Multicultural NSW and will be employed as a casual on the Multicultural NSW Interpreter Panel.
