Multicultural Health Medal sponsored by the NSW Multicultural Health Communication Service on behalf of NSW Health

This award recognises an individual or organisation that has developed a program or community initiative in New South Wales that improves the health of culturally diverse communities. The initiative may support physical or mental health, promote early intervention or prevention, strengthen health literacy, or reduce barriers to accessing health services. The program must demonstrate culturally responsive practices and measurable outcomes that contribute to long-term positive health impacts for culturally diverse communities.
